A diagram illustrating the relative sizes of three circles. At the center is a small blue circle labeled 'EARTH (to scale)'. A white arrow points from this label to the center of the circle. Surrounding the Earth is a larger white circle labeled 'MOON ORBIT', with a white arrow pointing from the label to the circle's boundary. The outermost circle is a large orange circle labeled 'HUMAN CIRCLE', with an orange arrow pointing from the label to the circle's boundary. The labels 'HUMAN CIRCLE' and 'MOON ORBIT' are in all caps.
